Cutting of Surru Trees in Vasai

2405. SHRI SATISH PRADHAN: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news item, appearing in Sagar, a Marathi Daily dated 15th October, 2002 about mass cutting of Surru trees along the Coastal area of Vasai, Maharashtra;

(b) if so, what action Government have taken against the people, who have deserted the Coastal area and affected the environment; and

(c) whether it is a fact that these trees have been sold to one shipping company?

THE MINISTER OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI T.R. BAALU): (a) to (c) Thane Social Forestry Division under Konkan Social Forestry Circle, Thane has been raising Surru plantations on the coastal areas in Vasai Tehsil of Thane district. These plantation are raised either on community land or on gram panchayat lands. After 3 years, the plantations are handed over to the concerned gram panchayat for further maintenance & protection. Inquiry with sarpanch of Arnala Village, where miximum extent of Surru plantations have been raised reveals that no incidence of mass cutting of Surru trees along the coastal areas in Arnala Village of Vasai Tehsil has taken place in the current year 2002. However, sporadic incidents of cutting of Surru trees by villagers for domestic use do take place.
